Important Information

GENERAL INFORMATION: This form is to render tangible personal property qualified for allocation of value owned or managed and controlled as fiduciary on Jan. 1 of this year (Tax Code Section 22.01). This report is confidential and not open to public inspection; disclosure is permitted (Tax Code Section 22.27).

FILING INSTRUCTIONS: This document and all supporting documentation must be filed with the appraisal district office in the county in which the property is taxable. Do not file this document with the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts. Contact information for appraisal district offices may be found on the Comptroller’s website.

DEADLINES: Rendition statements and property report deadlines depend on property type. The statements and reports must be delivered to the chief appraiser after Jan. 1 and no later than the deadlines indicated below.

PENALTIES: Failure to timely file a required rendition statement or property report will incur a penalty of 10 percent of the total amount of taxes imposed on the property for that year. An additional penalty will be incurred of 50 percent of the total amount of taxes imposed on the property for the tax year of the statement or report, if a court determines that:

1. a person filed a false statement or report with the intent to commit fraud or to evade the tax; or
2. for the purpose of affecting the course or outcome of an inspection, investigation, determination, or other proceeding before the appraisal district, a person:
 - altered, destroyed or concealed any record, document or thing;
 - presented to the chief appraiser any altered or fraudulent record, document or thing; or
 - otherwise engages in fraudulent conduct.

TERMINATED EXEMPTION: If an exemption terminates on a property, the person who owns the property shall render for taxation 30 days from termination (Tax Code 22.02). If an exemption is denied on a property, within 30 days after the denial the property shall be rendered (Tax Code 22.01(a)).
